Taking Root

Seven dynamic speakers including Anthony Rose (executive chef and founder of Rose and Sons), Debbie Field (executive director of Food Share), Ran Goel (founder of Fresh City Farms), Rabbi Rafi Lipner (senior rabbi of Shaarei Tefillah and executive director of The House), and Ryan Storm (14-year-old revolutionary food blogger) shared inspiring stories at the recent event honouring Shoresh Jewish Environmental Programs' seventh year. Funds from this event will go to support the next seven years of Shoresh's transformative work, connecting people, land, and spirit. ■ - The Socialite
