Innovative Program? Shoresh's Kavanah Garden

Tuesday, November 14 2011

VAUGHAN – The 2011-12 edition of Slingshot, A Resource Guide to Jewish Innovation, has selected Shoresh's Kavanah Garden as one of North America's most innovative Jewish nonprofit endeavours.

Shoresh Jewish Environmental Programs is the only Canadian organization, out of a total of 50, recognized as the most inspiring and innovative organizations, projects and programs in the North American Jewish community.

Kavanah Garden is an organic educational garden at the Joseph and Wolf Lebovic Jewish Community Campus in Vaughan.

According to its website, "Shoresh was established in 2002 to lead the Jewish environmental movement in the Greater Toronto Area. Through educational programs and grassroots initiatives, rooted in Jewish social and environmental values, Shoresb is working to build a more connected and ecologically sustainable Jewish community.”
